HONG KONG

Marina Rules & Regulations:
Extracts* of Provisions

(MAY 2020)

A. BERTHING LICENCE

1. Only qualified Members of Lantau Yacht Club (“the Club”) are entitled to apply for a Berthing Licence conferring the right to use a wet berth.
2. All Berthing Licence applications are subject to written approval by the Club and berths are allocated on a first-come-first-served basis subject to availability. Fixed berths are not guaranteed.
3. Prior to the commencement of the Berthing Licence, the Vessel Owner shall furnish the Club with evidence of such insurance as may be required by any Competent Authority and shall renew or replace such insurance coverage upon its expiry or termination.
4. The Berthing Licence is non-transferrable and no rights of the Berth Holder created under the Berthing Licence may be transferred or assigned.
5. Should the Berth Holder (or the registered Vessel Owner) sell, charter, or transfer all or any portion of his interest in, or possession of, the Vessel, all rights under the Berthing Licence shall automatically terminate with immediate effect, unless the Club otherwise agrees in writing.
6. If the Vessel is sold, the Berth Holder is required to inform the Club within three (3) calendar days of the sale. In such an event, the Berthing Licence shall become void and the Berth Holder shall surrender all rights (but not obligations) under the Berthing Licence and is required to re-apply for a Berth (subject to availability and new terms) should he intend to bring in a new Vessel.

B. THE VESSEL

1. Ownership of a Vessel must be as shown in the registration document of the Vessel as issued by the authorities of its origin. The requirement of standing to become a Berth Holder by entering into a Berthing Licence with Lantau Yacht Club is as follows:
 - a) In the case of a Vessel Owner being an individual person who has been admitted as an Individual Member, the Individual Member must hold at least 51% interest in the Vessel in order for him to be considered a prospective Berth Holder; or
 - b) In the case of a Vessel Owner being a company, partnership or unincorporated association, the company, partnership or unincorporated association which has been admitted as a Corporate Member, the Corporate Member must altogether hold 100% interest in the Vessel in order for it to be considered a prospective Berth Holder; or

LANTAU YACHT CLUB
HONG KONG

- c) In the case where the Vessel is solely owned by a company with a shareholder being an individual person holding at least 51% of the interest in the company who has been admitted as an Individual Member, the Individual Member must have a valid and effective authorisation from the company for him to act on its behalf in order for him to be considered a prospective Berth Holder.

C. THE BERTHING LICENCE FEE & DEPOSIT

1. The Berth Holder shall pay the berthing licence fee and deposit.
2. The Berth Holder shall also pay all utility charges for electricity and water supplied and waste collection services on a monthly basis. The licence fee for the wet berth and the space at the Temporary Storage Area is based on the length of the berth or the length of the Vessel, whichever is greater.

D. TERMINATION

1. The Berthing Licence may not be pre-maturely terminated without the prior written consent of the Club.

E. OTHER REGULATIONS GOVERNING THE MARINA

1. The Marina is for the use of recreational vessels and leisure-oriented nautical activities. Vessels or activities which are of a commercial character are permitted subject to prior written authorisation from the Club. All complimentary uses, in harmony with the natural surroundings of the Marina, which are proposed by Marina users, may be accepted at the Club's discretion.
2. All Vessels must be well-maintained, in good appearance, sea-worthy, in good working order and capable of moving under their own power at all times. Berth Holders must at all times ensure that their vessel is safely and properly secured.

F. REQUIREMENTS OF VESSEL OWNER / BERTH HOLDER

1. All Berth Holders are required to provide the Club with the full list of their respective crew members.
2. The Berth Holder shall not and shall not permit any person to, reside within the Marina or aboard the Vessel, or use the Marina or Vessel as their legal domicile or as a place of residence. The Club shall be entitled to request and reasonably require any Berth Holder or crew member to provide documentary evidence showing that he has a permanent residential address.
3. If a Berth Holder wishes any members of his crew to have independent access to the Marina, he must apply for and obtain a crew identity pass for each such crew member. An administrative fee will apply. Crew without crew identity passes must be accompanied by the Berth Holder at all times.
